For question 51, read the passage very carefully and in full sentences answer the questions about it.

SSEREMBA IN HOSPITAL

One afternoon, Sseremba woke up from deep sleep. His head was in severe pain and was lying on a bed with white bed sheets. His hands were tied with bandages. He felt pain in all his joints and muscles.

Despite the severe pain, Sseremba reached the medical card on the table and read it. This is when he realized he had been admitted to Nsambya Hospital, in Makindye-Kampala. He had been involved in a fatal accident and had been brought in a police ambulance.

As his head cleared, Sseremba recalled the events before the accident. That morning, he had left home for Jinja. He had been sent by his mother to spend the holiday with her sister, Mrs. Kiyingi Mariam. Sseremba boarded a taxi that was in a dangerous mechanical condition.

From the Kampala taxi rank, the taxi reached a roundabout. This was just after Lugazi town. It began speeding. Some fares warned the driver to stop speeding for it is the major cause of motor accidents but he did not listen. He was a careless driver indeed. As he continued speeding and overtaking in Bulyantete, he collided with a lorry and there was a loud bang. Sseremba was among the passengers who were critically injured. Thank God, a police ambulance hurried to the scene. Sseremba and the others injured were rushed to Nsambya hospital. When he healed, he vowed never to board a vehicle in a dangerous mechanical condition again.

53. Read the poem carefully and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

I have a dream
That the environment we love
Will ever be valued and conserved
By even some people who care less about it.
They will remember that the earth was made
For them to live happily by our Almighty Father.

I have a dream,
That humans will stop degrading land
Will stop dumping polythene bags and plastics on it
They will change their minds
And conserve our beautiful environment,
And preserve our forests.

I have a dream,
That humans will resolve to use dustbins
For proper rubbish disposal
Incinerators to have rubbish burnt
And plant more and more trees
So as to conserve and preserve the environment.

Zigiti Paul
